

Early Childhood Administration

The demands on an administrator in the early childhood sector often requires them to wear many hats. This entails a sound knowledge base in inclusive work practices, the ability to communicate with a variety of stakeholders and an understanding of compliance and regulatory requirements. During this session we will explore these components and will discuss the importance of self-care while navigating the complexity of this role.

Presented by Cynthia Cuoco

a time to thrive

www.ccsa.org.au/rrf