

SERIES 7

Merise Bickley

Lead, Early Childhood at NSW Education Standards Authority

Merise has worked as Lead, Early Childhood at NSW Education Standards Authority since 2016. Starting as an early childhood teacher her 40 year career in early childhood has included experience in:

- Establishing and guiding the management and operations of long day care services in NSW and ACT;
- quality assurance, working at National Childcare Accreditation Council for 11 years
- managing and leading professional development programs for early childhood professionals, including teachers and educators, management and those working in regulation and compliance.