

SERIES 7

Lou-Anne (Lou) Lind

NSW Department Of Education

Lou-Anne Lind is the Acting Executive Director of Commissioning in Early Childhood Outcomes (Department of Education) to support the roll out of the NSW Government's Early Years Commitment.

With over 25 years of experience working in the public sector on the design and implementation of policy and programs across multiple portfolios including children and young people, disability, multicultural affairs, Aboriginal Affairs, and environmental protection.

Lou-Anne has a deep commitment to taking a place-based and localised approach to the implementation of government reform. Her approach to solve for complex local issues is to drive collaborative, cross-sector and multi-disciplinary approaches that brings together everyone's collective knowledge and experience.

When not working in Sydney, Lou-Anne spends her time in the Lake Macquarie area where she and her partner have recently settled exploring the wonderful natural environment made up of mountains, lakes, beaches, and untouched bushland. She has recently become an aunty which has deepened and further personalised her commitment to the education and well-being of young children.
