

Start Strong Capital Works Grants Program

Crisis Fund

The Crisis Fund supports the maintenance and creation of community preschool places where there is an urgent need for capital works in at least one of the following circumstances:

Existing service facing closure

An existing service is facing closure or relocation due to exceptional or unforeseen circumstances, such as, compulsory acquisition of premises.

Natural disaster or state of emergency

An existing service is impacted by a natural disaster or state of emergency and is required to undertake urgent structural remediation work.

New preschool in a remote area

An eligible organisation wants to operate a centre-based community preschool in a remote or very remote area where access to preschool education is limited or non-existent.

Applications for Crisis Fund grants are received all year round or until funds are exhausted
