

Contingency Planning For The Administrators Role

The administrator within an early childhood service plays a key role in ensuring that all administrative processes are executed. Planning for administrators to take extended leave, is vital in ensuring the successful continuity of service delivery. In this session we will complete a risk assessment checklist – and begin prioritizing the top risks of your role.

Presented by Molly Hewett

a time to thrive

www.ccsa.org.au/rrf